12 Plaintiffs,

13 v.

14 CERTAINTEED, LLC, a Pennsylvania limited
15 liability company as successor-in-interest to
16 CERTAINTEED CORPORATION, a
Pennsylvania corporation,

Defendant.

CASE NO. C20-1285-JCC

MINUTE ORDER

17 The following Minute Order is made by direction of the Court, the Honorable John C.
18 Coughenour, United States District Judge:

19 This matter comes before the Court sua sponte. Local Civil Rule 7.1(a)(2) requires “[a]ny
20 nongovernmental party . . . [to] file a corporate disclosure statement identifying . . . any member 21 or owner in a . . . limited liability corporation (LLC).” In diversity cases, like this one, the 22 corporate disclosure statement must also list “those states in which the party, owners, partners, or 23 members are citizens.” W.D. Wash. Local Civ. R. 7.1(b). Defendant CertainTeed LLC’s
24 corporate disclosure statement (Dkt. No. 7) identifies Saint-Gobain Delaware Corporation as its 25 only publicly held owner but does not list the states in which that corporation is a citizen.

26 Therefore, it does not contain all of the information required by Local Civil Rule 7.1.

1 Accordingly, the Court ORDERS Defendant CertainTeed LLC to file an amended corporate
2 disclosure statement that complies with Local Civil Rule 7.1 within seven days of the date of this
3 order. For the avoidance of doubt, Local Civil Rule 7.1 requires LLCs to disclose all of their 4 members or owners, including those that are not publicly held companies.

5 DATED this 20th day of May 2021.
